Recruitment calendar – veterinary medicine, long cycle studies, full-time programme starting in the winter semester 2027/2028

Candidates wanting to study at the FVM at SGGW must pass an exam that verifies special aptitude for studying veterinary medicine in English, hereinafter referred to as the exam of special aptitude (ESA).

The structure of ESA is as follows:

The ESA lasts 130 minutes and consists of two parts:	The total number of questions	To pass	Estimated time to complete the task
Part A: Competency Test = general science knowledge test (25 questions)+ logical thinking test (25 questions)	50	26 points	90 minutes
Part B: English Language Test (minimum level B2) *	50	26 points	40 minutes

Note: The ESA is considered passed if the candidate receives a minimum number of points from each part of the exam

Applies to recruitments starting from November 23rd, 2026.

The exam of special aptitude (ESA), the basis for qualification for the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, will be held at SGGW in Warsaw on December 11, 2026, at 11:00 a.m. An external recruiter, the IMS company, will organise other exam dates – for more information, go to the RECRUITMENT VIA IMS tab.
