

Module name:		Polish language 1
Learning effects		Course outcomes:
Knowledge:	1	Student has information on the lifestyle in Poland, tradition, mentality, how to communicate
Skills:	1	Student possess speaking, understanding, reading skills, which are decisive in effectively using the language. Student informs about the plan of the day, asks for and tells the time, schedules appointments, states their preferences, talks about the free time and hobbies, asks and states frequency of actions, talks about past
Competences:	1	Student creates natural communication situations and breaks the language barrier. This helps the integration process with Poles and allows to explore the culture of another country
Objectives of the module required to obtain learning effects:		The objective is to achieve the basic level of Polish in everyday communication and situations.
Assessment methods:		written test and oral examination