

Module name:	Technologies in animal production
ECTS:	2
Learning effects	Course outcomes:
Knowledge:	1	Student knows basic technologies of animal production and how to handle farm animals in safe and humane way
	2	Student knows conditions of hygiene and appropriate utilisation and disposal of animal by-products
	3	Student knows management of waste from animal production,
	4	Student knows conditions of animal welfare,
	5	Student knows rules of intellectual property
Skills:	1	Student can recognize and evaluate the animal health problems descending from production technology
	2	Student can evaluate the influence of the technology on quality of the products of animal origin
Competences:	1	Student advises farmer how to improve his farm facilities
	2	Student ordains information on proper farm technology
Objectives of the module required to obtain learning effects:	During the course, students are supposed to acquire basic procedures in animal technology like identification, decornuation etc.; the rules of handling of large animals; the problems associated with animal transportation; utilisation of by-products including waste from animal production.
Assessment methods:	Written test	