

Module name:		Ethical aspects of veterinary practice
ECTS:		1
Learning effects		Course outcomes:
Knowledge:	1	Student knows the Code of Ethics of Veterinary Surgeon
Skills:	1	Student undertakes professional activities in accordance with principles of professional ethics
	2	Student recognise the basic areas of professional responsibility and understands the various implications and dependencies of veterinary practice
Competences:	1	Student is able to value and make choices in ethically difficult situations and justify his own opinion
	2	Student is able to assess the veterinarian's conduct from an ethical perspective
Objectives of the module required to obtain learning effects:		The main aim of the module is to introduce issues related to the professional ethics of a veterinary surgeon and to support the skills of making ethical assessments in veterinary medicine. The course will be based on providing intellectual tools for making ethical assessments, including the analysis of a wide range of cases from veterinary practice.
Assessment methods:		Written test